Title: Moonglow Defense HQ

Author: Librarian Laurette

 Welcome to my home.
On these two tables you will find runebooks for locations to gather resources for Moonglows defense. I will be here as often as possible but more likely [next]
you will find me around Moonglow aiding in whatever ways I can.
 I will hand out a very limited number of Guard Sashes to those I find contributing day in and day out, though the number is small since I could not reclaim many from the Ant Lions and have exhausted my fortune obtaining more. If you need to reach me, leave a msg on the bulletin board [next] Feel free to read the books here at the Library, and visit the armory upstairs as well.
